Day 4 of Mourning:

In 2017, 6,650 young workers were injured on the job in BC. Young worker injuries represent a third of the total work place injuries in BC. This Friday, April 28th, is The National Day of Mourning for workers killed and injured on the job. It is a day when we recognize and remember all those who have lost their lives just trying to provide for themselves and their families.

Many students at this school have part time jobs, and all of us one day will have full time careers. As young workers we should protect ourselves from workplace dangers by knowing the safety procedures at work and by knowing our rights.

Remember: Everyone has the right to refuse unsafe work. On Friday April 28th, remember those who have been injured or have died at work. Please, mourn them, but don't be one of the mourned – stay safe at work.

Hey Grads, TODAY is the last day to hand in your Ticket Request forms for this year's Commencement Ceremony! Hurry and submit yours to the main office before 3:30pm today!
