School-Wide Notices

-  Would those students who registered to write an AP Exam next month and who are not taking an AP class please meet with Mr. Banta briefly at the beginning of lunch today.
-  Attention Grads: A copy of the photos and names on this year's grad composite is placed in the music room window. It is very important that you check that your photo and name are correct. If there are any corrections, please see Mr. Banta in the office before 3 pm April 15. If you don't see Mr. Banta with corrections the assumption will be made that the info on the composite is correct. Changes cannot be made later.
-  Attention all Ms. Sullivan's ELL 5 students: You must report to room 603 at lunch on Monday April 15 or Tuesday April 16 to do a writing sample. Please look at the two class lists posted throughout the school to find out which day you need to report to room 603. Please see Ms. Sullivan if you have any questions.
-  Any students interested in going to New York please attend next week's lunch meeting on Wednesday April 17 in room 103.
-  Hey everyone! Charity Brighthouse will be hosting their annual Youth Volunteerism Fair this Thursday, April 11 at the Richmond Public Library. Stop by to check out the many different volunteer opportunities for youth in our community. There will be over 25 organizations present including RSDCO, RAPS, Red Cross, Coast Capital and the Richmond Oval. Hope to see you there!
-  Are you currently a grade 10, 11 or 12 student interested in exploring a career in the trades? Submit your Youth Train in Trades application as soon as possible. These post-secondary trade programs, offer dual credits for high school and university, and your program tuition is paid. Applications are available in your counselling office!
-  The University of Toronto will be holding an information session for prospective students in grades 10 and 11 on Saturday, April 13 at the Vancouver Convention Centre East from 9:30 - 11:30 am and registration is required. Details are on the SLSS Career Centre Calendar.

Sports

-  Hey Sharks! For today's indoor hockey intramurals game, we have team Logan-aters vs the Teachers. Tomorrow, we have team Paberizors vs team Abasheck West.

Clubs and Activities

-  Choir Club cancelled today, but we will have a lunch time practice Friday at lunch.

 Jazz Band practice tomorrow at lunch; our special after school practice is postponed till Monday.
