Announcements

We will be having our first PLT session this Wednesday at 9:20am. Remember to sign up online! For those who are not familiar with PLT, instructions on how to sign up is posted the SLSS website.

A reminder for all students, TODAY is your last chance to submit the course change request forms. Please refer to your email for the link to the MS form. The link will be open until 3:30pm today. Don't miss the deadline!

Counsellors are requesting that students actively check their emails during permitted times as the new schedules may be emailed to them.

Attention all students, your BLUE student verification form and WHITE media consent form need to be returned to the office once they're signed. Drop off boxes have been set up outside of the school office.

If you have missed the homeroom meeting last Tuesday and did not receive the forms, please come by the office to pick them up.

Reminder that locker sign-up for grade 8's will take place at 4pm today. If you have any questions or concerns about lockers, please see Mrs. Fackler in the office.

---

ELL 5 students who have not signed-up for their September writing assessment should check their emails for the link.

Attention to all Grade 8 Boys interested in playing on the basketball team this year. There is a meeting at lunch-time on Tuesday, September 10th in the Shark Tank.
