

Grad Write Ups and Baby Photos

Guidelines for Grad Write-up:

- Maximum of 80 words
- No swearing or language that could be considered offensive or inappropriate in a school setting
- No URL links
- No special icons or emojis
- No abbreviation, coded language or initials

Guidelines for Baby Photos:

- Make sure the photo is clear
- If you are taking a photo of a physical print, do not use flash and make sure there is no glare
- You can also scan physical prints and send them directly to our email. Please make sure your photo is in PDF, JPEG or PNG format

Guidelines for Submission:

Please submit your quote and baby photo to the following Google

Form: https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSeaUw9mwIhLYCjJnEi5UJpkmqqzQMTpx17eq5qO77kBeCMTdg/viewform?usp=sf_link

OR

You may submit your baby photo and quote via email at slssyearbook2025@gmail.com
Please send the photo along with the quote together in a single email. In the email to slssyearbook2025@gmail.com you should include your quote and baby photo with the subject line:

Last Name, First Name, Student Number (i.e Smith, John 123456)

Your write-up and baby photo are due on Sunday, December 1st 2024 and any additional info can be found on the school website underneath Grad News.

Note The yearbook team will not be responsible for missing photos and quotes.

Disclaimers:

Be sure to properly type in your quotes exactly how you want it to be printed. Any grammatical or spelling mistakes will not be edited by the yearbook staff.

The yearbook, advisor, administration reserve the final right to refuse a quote or picture.

Inappropriate messages will have one chance to be re-written. If you continuously submit inappropriate messages, you will not be given space for a write-up.

All messages will be checked by Mr. Shin and the admin for content. Please make sure they are appropriate (nothing offensive or hurtful to anyone, no bad language).