Announcements

This week marks Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year. Today is the first day! The holiday is observed with traditions like the blowing of the shofar and the sharing of apples and honey, symbolizing wishes for a sweet year ahead. To those who celebrate it, we wish you a happy new year!

There is a mandatory meeting today in the theatre during lunch for students interested in becoming Student Council grade representatives. Show up to learn more about how to become a grade rep this year!

Hey, Sharks! After a long makeover, the Library is finally open! Come down during break, PLT, lunch, study block, or after school to check out everything that is new and improved!

Attention Gr. 10 and 11 students:

The Here4Peers Program is recruiting Volunteer Youth Leaders to facilitate workshops on mental health to our family of elementary schools. If you are passionate about mental health, confident in public speaking and facilitating workshops, this is the volunteer opportunity for you! Leaders are required to attend mandatory training sessions and ongoing meetings through the school year.

Find out more information at the info session today at lunch, in the JEDI Centre, Room 502. See Ms. Lau in the Counselling Centre if you have any questions.

Any Grade 8 boys interested in playing basketball, there will be an open-gym scrimmage afterschool this Friday, October 4th from 3-4:30pm in the Legends gym.
